

NHW Report Thursday 21st November 2018

Once again it is been very quiet in Old Bolingbroke.

Activity in the surrounding area since our last Parish Council Meeting.

Red Transit Van and Silver Peugeot seen acting suspiciously in surrounding areas.

Burglary Main Road Toynton All Saints.

Shed break in Midville Nr Stickney.

Some good news.

Two men from Traveller Sites have been jailed for 3 years nine months after pleading guilty to conspiring to defraud elderly and vulnerable victims in Horncastle, Woodhall Spa and surrounding areas.

Unscrupulous persons from All Road Tar Ltd offering to lay Tarmac in Rural areas. After laying the tarmac the agreed price has then escalated into thousands of pounds.

Please remember we are a No Cold Calling Village. We have signs at the entrances to our village to stop these people calling here. Please do not buy from or employ anyone Who is Cold Calling in our village.

Reports of suspicious persons seen on property in the early hours of the morning between 02.00 - 04.00 hours in local surrounding areas.

Please remember to leave your security lights, alarms and CCTV on to keep unwanted visitors away.

Please make sure your property is secured to make it difficult for unwanted persons to gain entry.

In an emergency and if you see unknown persons in the act please dial 999.

Churches broken into in surrounding areas of Langton, Sausthorpe and Brinkhill. Please remain vigilant to keep our church and chapel safe.

I have applied for some free of charge NHW signs from the Police .They only have a small supply so it's on a first come first served basis.

Please can everyone remain alert and vigilant especially with Christmas only a month away. If you see anyone acting suspiciously please ring Lincolnshire Police on 101.

If you do ring anything in it's important to obtain as much information and details as possible to give to the Police.
